

Water Resources as a Central Theme in a Proposed Natural History Interpretive Center in Waynesboro, VA

 ENTERING BIG LEVELS
GAME MANAGEMENT UNIT AND REFUGE
An area of 30 000 acres, set aside in 1935 to provide a demonstration area for wildlife management practices now conducted on the National Forests in Virginia.
HUNTING AND FISHING PROVIDED FOR YOUR ENJOYMENT
GEORGE WASHINGTON NATIONAL FOREST COOPERATING VA. COMMISSION OF GAME AND INLAND FISHERIES

Agency Campus

Collections
&
work space

Demo labs & outdoor exhibits

Public exhibits

Cultural History

Geology and Hydrology

Children's play and learn area

Flora and Fauna

Plus:

- Classrooms
- Temporary exhibit gallery
- Linkages to trail system

3000 sq ft lab space
(analysis, microcosm)

Secure outdoor research Area (mesocosm)

Adjacent to field sites
(New River, springs)

Public interpretation (lab windows, exhibits)

Mountain streams = opportunity

